JOURNAL

FIRST DAY

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1932

Opening The Louisiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, convened in eighty-seventh session in Trinity Methodist Church, Ruston, La., on Thursday, November 24, 1932, at 8:30 a.m., Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs in the chair. The Bishop conducted the devotional service, which included the singing of a hymn and prayer led by Dr. O. F. Sensabaugh.

Roll Call The Secretary of the preceding session of the Conference called the roll. See Chronological Roll. Names of those who answered present are indicated by an asterisk (*); names of those who were noted as present after roll call by two (). Also see roll of Lay Delegates, where names are indicated in like manner, and seating of alternates noted.

Organization R. H. Harper was elected Secretary; J. F. Foster and J. C. Rousseaux Assistant Secretaries; R. W. Vaughan Statistical Secretary; H. W. Cudd, L. R. Nease, Jr., C. E. McLean, C. F. Sheppard, J. E. Hearn, H. B. Hines, D. W. Poole, R. H. Staples and L. W. Smart assistants to the Statistical Secretary. The hour of meeting was fixed at 8:30 a. m., and that of adjournment at 12 noon. The main auditorium was made the bar. H. L. Johns, pastor-host, made necessary announcements, and then welcomed the Conference. Bishop Dobbs responded.

Schedule for Conference The Bishop, in view of a shorter session than usual, submitted a schedule for important matters, and the schedule was adopted as follows: Thanksgiving service at 10:30; Report of W. Angie Smith, president of Centenary College, 11 a. m., Friday; Reception of class, 10 a. m., Saturday; Ordination of deacons, 11 a. m., Sunday; Ordination of elders, Sunday afternoon; Adjournment, late Sunday afternoon.

Communications were referred to the proper boards and committees.

Report Legal Conference Briscoe Carter submitted the report of the Legal Conference, and it was ordered to record as follows:

REPORT OF LEGAL CONFERENCE

In accordance with instructions given us by you in your last annual session concerning the transfer of our funds from the present Trustees to the Board of Finance of the M. E. C. S., we have liquidated $5000 of our securities as the Board of Finance requested and transferred that amount to the Board of Finance at St. Louis. We will have to await the maturity of many of our securities if we are to realize their face value. This has been a hard year on investments, owing to the general business conditions the yield has not been so great as formerly. However, nothing has been lost, though some have had to re-finance at a lower rate of interest. We are glad to report that from our local fund we are able to make an appropriation of $3096.53, and that we have $2000 from the Blair Fund, making $5096.53 in all, for which checks are to be given the Conference Board of Finance.

BRISCOE CARTER,
President.

Telegram to Dr. Dobbs Upon motion of H. W. Rickey, the Secretary was instructed to send a message of greeting to Dr. S. L. Dobbs, father of Bishop Dobbs.

Names Referred In answer to Question 21, the names of brethren who had been sustaining the superannuate relation were called; their characters passed, and their names were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations. The names were also called of E. J. Buck and H. N. Harrison; their characters passed, and their names were referred to the same committee. During the call of the foregoing names, the time was extended that the business of the session might be completed.

Committee on Minutes B. H. Andrews, A. M. Serex and B. C. Taylor were named as a committee to examine minutes and make report each day.

Announcements and Adjournment Announcements were made; the doxology was sung, the benediction was pronounced by C. C. Miller, and the Conference adjourned.

SECOND DAY

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1932

Opening Conference convened, according to rule, at 8:30 a. m., Bishop Dobbs in the chair. The Bishop conducted the devotional service, which included appropriate hymns, reading of Psalm 145, and prayer led by W. R. Harvell. B. H. Andrews, chairman of the committee on minutes, reported that the minutes of the first day were correct. Upon motion of R. H. Harper, calling of the roll was dispensed with.

Classes Saturday The call of the Conference classes was made the order of the day, Saturday, at 9 a. m.

Discontinued—None. Question 5 was called: Who are discontinued? None.

A. L. Harper Locates Question 11 was called: Who are located this year? A. L. Harper, at his own request, made through H. T. Carley, P. E., was granted a location.

Transfers Question 9 was called, and Bishop Dobbs announced the transfer, in interim of Conferences, of W. T. Gray, an elder, from the Central Texas Conference, and of T. P. Turner, an elder, from the Pacific Conference, to the Louisiana Conference. Question 13 was called, and the Bishop announced the transfer, in interim of Conference, of G. A. Morgan, an elder, to the Central Texas Conference, and of A. R. Hoffpauir, an elder, to the Pacific Conference.

Character At intervals during the session, Question 21 was called, and the names of a large number of the members of the Conference were called and their character passed. The names of those called at this time and in later sessions until the call was complete will be found in the Chronological Roll.

Parsons Withdraws Question 12 was called: Who have withdrawn or been expelled? In answer to the first part of the question, J. T. Parsons, through Briscoe Carter, P. E., surrendered his credentials, which were filed with the Secretary, and withdrew from the ministry and membership of the Church. Briscoe Carter stated that Mrs. Parsons had recently died, and that the eight children of J. T. Parsons were in needy circumstances. The members of the Conference contributed $86.50 toward their relief.

Introduced Dr. W. J. Bolin, pastor First Baptist Church, and Dr. J. D. Carroll, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church, of Ruston; Mr. H. L. McKnight, secretary of the Ruston Chamber of Commerce; Prof. H. E. Townsend, president-elect of the Louisiana Teachers' Association; Rev. Mr. Kaetzell, brother of E. G. Kaetzell, and Dr. A. C. Millar, editor of the Arkansas Methodist, were introduced. Dr. Millar addressed the Conference concerning Mt. Sequoyah.

Message to Dr. Dobbs The Secretary reported that John F. Foster, of the secretarial staff, had sent the following message to Rev. Dr. S. L. Dobbs, father of Bishop Dobbs:

"The Louisiana Conference wish to express to you their appreciation of yourself and of the gift you have made to Louisiana in the person of Bishop Dobbs."

Case of Sudduth The name of J. W. Sudduth was called. Bishop

Dobbs called for the report of the special committee, composed of L. C. Wilson, W. D. Kleinschmidt and H. N. Brown, which had been appointed to investigate certain charges against J. W. Sudduth. L. C. Wilson reported that the committee found a trial necessary; submitted a bill of charges and specifications—which later went on file with all papers in the case—and appointed M. S. Monk to represent the Church. Bishop Dobbs appointed the following committee to try the case: W. W. Holmes, C. D. Atkinson, Wm. Schuhle, G. M. Hicks, Martin Hebert, J. A. McCormack, J. W. Booth, W. H. Giles, and F. J. McCoy.

Smith on Centenary The order of the day was taken up and W. Angie Smith, acting president, addressed the Conference, giving a full account of the affairs of Centenary College. W. R. Harvell moved that the Conference show its appreciation of the service rendered by Dr. Smith, by standing, and the Conference arose.

Christian Education, No. 1 F. L. Wells, president of the Conference Board of Christian Education, addressed the Conference and submitted report No. 1 of the Board, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT No. 1—BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

We are happy in reporting that, after painstaking negotiations throughout the past year, we have reduced the interest payments on Conference bonds $4,700. This gratifying result has been accomplished by an agreement with the Trustees of Centenary College, made through the acting president, Dr. W. Angie Smith, whereby the College will forego collection of interest on the $94,000 in bonds now in the possession of the College. We express to Dr. Smith our deep appreciation of his splendid co-operation with the Executive Committee of our Board in bringing this much relief to the Conference.

The decreased income of the Board of Christian Education makes it necessary to continue negotiations looking for yet further release from the heavy burden involved in carrying the interest charges on the Conference bonds. We are pleased to report that there seems to be a disposition on the part of all of the creditors, both of the Conference and of the College, to give further co-operation in working out our mutual problem.

We therefore request the Conference to manifest its confidence in the Board of Christian Education by adopting the following resolution: We, the Louisiana Annual Conference, in session at Ruston, La., Nov. 25, 1932, do hereby designate and appoint the members of the Board of Christian Education of the Conference as a Commission to act in our behalf in negotiations with the several groups and individuals whose interests are involved in the bonded and other forms of indebtedness both of the College and of the Conference, wherein the interests of the Conference are at stake.

FRANK L. WELLS, President.

W. C. CHILDRESS, Secretary.

Place Next Conference The time of the session was extended. Question 44 was called. W. Angie Smith invited the Conference to hold the next session in First Church, Shreveport, and R. T. Ware invited the Conference to Winnfield. Standing vote showed 89 for Shreveport and 103 for Winnfield. Upon motion of W. Angie Smith, the selection of Winnfield was made unanimous.

Introductions Dr. John L. Hoover, pasotr First Methodist Church, El Dorado, Arkansas; Dr. H. H. Griffin, pastor of First Methodist Church, Camden, Arkansas; Dr. J. L. Dedman, P. E. of the Camden District; Prof. J. M. Sullivan, Ph. D., of Millsaps College, and Rev. P. M. Caraway, of the Mississippi Conference, were introduced.

Concerning Reports The Secretary asked that all reports of boards and committees be made as brief as possible, so as to reduce cost of printing the Annual, and also asked the privilege of editing reports when necessary. Upon motion of W. L. Doss, Jr., the privilege was granted.

Announcements and Adjournment "My country! 'tis of thee," was sung, Dr. George S. Sexton pronounced the benediction, and the Conference adjourned.

THIRD DAY

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1932

Opening Conference convened, according to rule, at 8:30 a. m., Bishop Dobbs in the chair. W. L. Doss, Jr., by request of the Bishop, led the devotional service, which consisted of the singing of appropriate hymns, prayer by M. S. Monk, and the reading by the Bishop of a portion of Hebrews, 13. B. H. Andrews reported the minutes to be correct. H. L. Johns made announcements.

Introduced Rev. Leon W. Sloane, superintendent La. Anti-Saloon League; Dr. G. F. Winfield, dean of Whitworth College, and Rev. B. F. Rogers, transferred last year and stationed at Carrollton Avenue, New Orleans, were introduced.

Afternoon Session J. W. Sudduth was granted leave of absence and other routine matters disposed of. The Bishop then announced the agenda for the morning and asked that the admission of class into full connection be postponed until the afternoon session, if the Conference should desire to order such session. Upon motion of W. L. Doss, Jr., it was so ordered, and the time of meeting was fixed at 2 o'clock, but later changed to 2:30.

Gifts Presented Guy M. Hicks, from himself and others of the Shreveport District, presented a handsome bag to H. T. Carley, retiring presiding elder, and Judge E. L. Walker, from himself and others of the Ruston District, presented $60 in gold to R. M. Brown, retiring presiding elder. Each of the brethren thus honored made an appropriate response. W. W. Holmes informed the Conference that Rev. W. L. Doss, Jr., retiring presiding elder of the New Orleans District, had already been honored on a pleasant occasion before Conference.

Report of Trial The report of the committee of trial was read and the character of J. W. Sudduth passed.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF TRIAL

We, your committee of trial in the case of Rev. J. W. Sudduth, beg leave to report that we find Rev. J. W. Sudduth not guilty.

W. W. HOLMES, Chairman.

Donaldson were called: their character passed, and, the committee reporting upon each favorably, they were advanced to the class of the third year. The name of Thurmon Spinks was called and his character passed. Not having completed his work, he remained in the class of the second year.

Who Else in Second Year? Question 4: Who else is in the class of the second year? Thurmon Spinks.

Elected Deacons Question 17 was called: What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been elected deacons? Razzie Ray Branton, Edwin Gustava Kaetzell and Allen Walter Townsend were elected deacons, and they, with George Walton Dameron (a deacon), were made eligible to be admitted into full connection. Ivan O. Donaldson was not elected a deacon.

Admitted on Trial Otis W. Spinks, recommended by the District Conference of the Minden District; Carl Frederick Lueg and Alvin Percy Smith, recommended by the District Conference of the New Orleans District, the Committee of Examination reporting upon each favorably, and the Committee on Admissions recommending, were admitted on trial.

Elected Elders Question 19 was called: What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been elected elders? Traveling preachers—The names were called of George Henry Corry, Ira Wright Flowers, John Elton Hearn and Byron Franklin Roberts; their character passed, and, the committee reporting favorably, they were graduated in the course of study, and elected elders. Local preachers—George Walton Dameron, having served the required time as a local deacon, was elected an elder.

The names of David Tarver, student at Duke University, and James William Sudduth, were called and their character passed. Not having completed their work, they remained in the class of the fourth year.

Who Else in Fourth Year? Question 16: Who else is in the class of the fourth year? David Tarver and James William Sudduth.

Deacons of One Year Question 15 was called: Who are the deacons of one year? The names were called of Marvin Wallace Beadle, Harvey Benjamin Hysell, Willie DeWitt Milton, Virgil D. Morris and George William Pomeroy were called; their character passed, and, the committee reporting favorably, they were advanced to the class of the fourth year.

Received from Other Churches Question 10 was called: Who are received from other Churches as traveling preachers? Gordon Forrest Bazemore, recommended by the District Conference of the New Orleans District, and certifying to his agreement with us in doctrine and Discipline, was received as a traveling preacher.

Bazemore Locates Question 11 was resumed. Gordon Forrest Bazemore, upon his own request, made through W. L. Doss, Jr., his presiding elder, was granted a location.

Name of J. F. Waltman Referred. Question 21 was called; names of men, including that of J. F. Waltman, were called and their character passed. See Chronological Roll and footnote. The name of J. F. Waltman was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

None Discontinued Question 5 was called: Who are discontinued? None.

Prison Reform The report of the Committee on Prison Reform was read and ordered to record as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PRISON REFORM

We recommend to our Church that hearty support be given movements in the State and Nation for the more humane treatment of prisoners and a better environment for them, and that our people be encouraged to look upon prisons as reformatories rather than places of punishment, as places where hope and courage may be strengthened rather than crushed forever. Let prisons throughout the State deal with prisoners in a Christian way rather than by brute force.

We further recommend that our Conference do its part toward supplying Christian literature to prisons, and that we do not forget our part in the great State prison at Angola.

E. M. MOUSER
W. C. SCOTT
E. W. CORLEY

None Supernumerary Question 22: Who are supernumerary? None.

Budget Report Re-committed The report of the Commission was read and discussed. Upon motion, the report was re-committed.

Visitors Speak Mrs. George S. Sexton, Jr., president of the W. M. S. of the Louisiana Conference, and Dr. G. F. Winfield, dean of Whitworth College, each addressed the Conference.

McKnight Admitted The Secretary read a communication from the Baton Rouge District, recommending that Alton Ausborne McKnight, be admitted on trial, under the two-thirds rule. After discussion, vote was as follows: For, 102; opposed, 40, and Alton Ausborne McKnight was admitted on trial.

Board of Lay Activities Judge E. L. Walker read the report of the Board of Lay Activities. Prof. J. M. Sullivan, Ph. D., Lay Leader of the Mississippi Conference, spoke to the report. The report was adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 1, BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

We are pleased to report definite progress along a number of lines during the past Conerence year. A more thorough comprehension and sympathetic co-operation in the work have followed the efforts of our Conference Lay Leader and his associates.

Laymen's Day was generally observed with splendid results throughout the Conference. The value and importance of this day, when properly observed, can scarcely be overestimated. We recommend that Laymen's Day be continued and observed in every church and that the second Sunday in June (June 11, 1933) be designated. The topic for the day—"The Stewardship Interpretation of Life"—lies at the very heart of the Christian enterprise.

The Benevolences We recommend that all lay leaders and boards of stewards redouble their efforts to secure 100 per cent of all benevolences. All the great interests of Methodism are involved. The closest possible co-operation should be given by the lay forces to the leadership of the Bishop, the Elders, and the pastors in their efforts to make the Louisiana Conference 100 per cent in all its financial program. We especially recommend that the every-member canvass for the benevolences be taken as soon as possible after the adjournment of the Conference and every effort be made to insure its success. Delay at this point means serious loss to the Church in this vital program.

Stewardship Your Board realizes the great need of a more vital, intensive, and extensive educational program for spiritual growth. This will come as our people are brought to a consciousness that they are stewards—stewards of their lives, talents and possessions; that all their great powers of body, mind and spirit should be dedicated to the service of God and the spread of Christ's kingdom. The proper inculcation of this Christian doctrine will materially assist in the solution of the problems of the Church, both of service and of adequate finances.

Lay Speaking The time has come when our Church recognizes that the ordained ministry need the supplementary and co-operative effort of laymen in meeting the spiritual needs of the community, both in personal work and ministry, through the use of pulpits for religious services. The value of lay speaking has been proven over and over again in our Church. It develops the Christian character of those participating, and is an effective agency for promoting the general program of the Church. The responsibility for organizing and making possible these results lies with the District Lay Leader and the Presiding Elder, working in co-operation with the charge lay leaders and the pastors. Careful selection should be made of all lay speakers, and they should be trained for their work through literature and coaching by their pastors.

Spiritual Life We call upon the laymen to deepen their own spiritual life by prayer, Bible study, worship, giving, and personal service.

Let our laymen avail themselves of the privilege of personal evangelism by example, teaching, and working, as did our Lord and Master.

The Methodist Layman The Methodist Layman is filling a place of its own and is indispensable to the lay leaders, members of stewardship committees, and members of official boards. We would especially recommend that an earnest effort be made to secure at least five subscriptions from each charge, these to include the charge lay leader, the chairman of the board of stewards, and the chairman of the stewardship committee.

Prohibition and Temperance The 18th Amendment should not be repealed. The Volstead law should not be modified. The sale of any form of intoxicants should never again be legalized. Our prohibition laws, both National and State, should be observed and respected and vigorously enforced. The laymen of our Church pledge their untiring support and co-operation to our legally constituted authorities, to our Church and to all agencies organized and existing for the purpose of upholding and maintaining these laws and the promotion of real temperance among our people. E. L. WALKER, Chairman.

McReynolds Lay Leader Question 43: Who is elected Conference Lay Leader? Judge E. L. Walker read report No. 2 of the Board of Lay Activities, nominating S. M. McReynolds to succeed himself as Conference Lay Leader. The report was adopted and Mr. McReynolds was elected.

Dr. Hawkins Speaks Dr. Henry G. Hawkins, of the historical commission of the Mississippi Conference, spoke concerning early Methodist history in Mississippi and Louisiana, and explained the delay in erecting the monument toward which the Louisiana Conference had made a contribution.

Memorial Service The order of the day was reached and the Conference entered into memorial service. Hymn 386 was sung, after which W. W. Drake led in prayer. While the Conference stood in tribute to their departed brethren, Question 14 was called: What preachers have died during the year? Robert H. Wynn, J. F. Patterson, John T. Sawyer, George D. Purcell. C. C. Wier preached a sermon on ministerial life and character. The Committee on Memoirs handed memoirs of the deceased to the Secretary for publication in the Annual.

Greetings from Dr. Dobbs John F. Foster read from Dr. S. L. Dobbs his reply to greetings sent him by the Conference—as follows:

"Greetings to the Conference. Thanks for kindly remembrance of myself and my boy." S. L. DOBBS Announcements and Adjournment Announcements were made; hymn 334 was sung, the benediction was pronounced by H. N. Harrison, and the Conference adjourned.

THIRD DAY

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1932

Afternoon Session

Opening Conference convened, pursuant to adjournment, at 2:30 p. m., Bishop Dobbs in the chair. After a hymn, D. B. Raulins led in prayer. Report on the minutes was deferred.

None Supernumerary Question 22 was called: Who are supernumerary? None.

No. 1, Board of Missions W. C. Scott read report No. 1 of the Board of Missions. J. G. Snelling and Bishop Dobbs spoke to the report. It was adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 1, BOARD OF MISSIONS

We have heard with great interest the report of Dr. J. G. Snelling, superintendent of our Memorial Mercy Home, and we rejoice in the excellent work he has done. The strictest economy has been exercised in the handling of the affairs of this institution. However, in the face of present conditions, the financial needs are pressing. Therefore, we recommend—

1 That we put forth every effort to inform our people regarding the excellent work which is being done in this Home.

2 That we authorize Dr. Snelling to co-operate with the Presiding Elders in perfecting a district organization that will bring that matter clearly before our people.

3 That we designate the third Sunday of May, or any Sunday near that date that meets with the approval of the pastor, for taking a special offering for the support of the Home.

J. G. SNELLING
W. C. SCOTT

No. 2, Board of Missions W. C. Scott read report No. 2 of the Board of Missions. W. L. Doss, Jr., spoke to the report. It was adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 2, BOARD OF MISSIONS

Since 1929 the income of the Board has dropped from $1,535,000 to approximately $700,000, a loss in three years of $835,000, or nearly 60 per cent of the normal income. Curtailments cannot be made so drastically in so short a time, though the Board faces the most serious crisis that ever came upon our Missionary work. Other reductions are being made. This situation demands that we exert every effort to make the Kingdom Extension Offering a success this year. We urge every pastor to do his best in this matter.

The Board nominates Dr. H. N. Brown for Conference Missionary Secretary.

By the order of the General Conference, Paine College, Augusta, Ga., will celebrate its Jubilee in 1933. This is the only college in America conducted jointly by white Southern people and colored Southern people. For fifty years this adventure in race relations has been a success. We pray that our people will co-operate in the Jubilee plans.

February 7-9, the General Missionary Council meets in Augusta, Ga., when the Jubilee will be celebrated. It is hoped that many of our Louisiana people will attend.

We heartily endorse "The World Outlook" and urge every pastor to co-operate in placing this excellent publication in every Methodist home.

We recommend that, due to the great opportunity that presents itself at the Charity Hospital in New Orleans, the Presiding Elders and churches of the Conference co-operate in the raising of sufficient funds to enable the Presiding Elder of the New Orleans District to arrange the work so that one of his pastors can give the needed service to this institution.

J. G. SNELLING
W. C. SCOTT

Committee on Salaries W. Angie Smith reported as follows for committee appointed to study the adjustment of ministers' salaries:

In reply to the form letter addressed to each member of the Conference for his opinion relative to the adjustment of salary schedule, there were 70 replies, less than one-half of the members. Fifty-one reported, Yes; eighteen reported, No; one reported, Yes and No. There was no agreement whatsoever, either as to amount or method. I submit this as the result of my research.

W. ANGIE SMITH

The report was received, and Dr. Smith was given the thanks of the Conference for his labors.

Introduced Harry S. Allen and Kermit Hollingsworth, general evangelists, were introduced.

Bishop Expresses Appreciation Bishop Dobbs called to his side John F. Foster, the secretary who had sent the message of greeting to Dr. S. L. Dobbs, and expressed his deep appreciation of the action of the Conference.

Offering for Superannuates It was announced that the offering taken for three of the superannuates amounted to $244.58.

Provision for Publishing Minutes A. S. Lutz offered resolutions to provide for the cost of publishing the minutes and "Annual of the Louisiana Conference." D. B. Boddie offered an amendment, which was accepted, and the resolutions, as amended, were adopted as follows:

RESOLUTIONS PROVIDING FOR PUBLICATION OF MINUTES

Whereas, the receipts on apportionment are not sufficient to meet the cost of printing and mailing the Conference "Annual," and

Whereas, the Publisher of the "Annual" has been forced, during 1931 and 1932 to borrow money to bring out the "Annual,"

Resolved, That the Publisher be instructed to carry only the charge totals in the statistical tables; to make such other changes as may be necessary to reduce the size and cost of the "Annual," and to reduce the number of copies issued.

Resolved, further, That the Publisher of the "Annual," Rev. R. H. Harper, be authorized and empowered to secure a loan sufficient to meet the expense of printing and mailing the "Annual of the Louisiana Conference," not to excced $900, and to pledge for payment of said loan the receipts on the apportionments adopted at this session of the Conference for publishing the "Annual."

A. S. LUTZ

Reduction in Apportionments W. D. Kleinschmidt read the report of the Commission on Budget. A. S. Lutz moved as a substitute that the apportionments for Conference work be reduced one-third. After discussion, G. S. Sexton moved as an amendment to the substitute that both General and Conference work apportionments be reduced by 25 per cent. The amendment prevailed, and the substitute as amended was adopted. The Commission on Budget retired to make the necessary changes in the report.

Full Connection Question 6 was called: Who are admitted into full connection? The Secretary called the names of Razzie Ray Branton, George Walton Dameron, Edwin Gustava Kaetzell and Allen Walter Townsend, and they came to the chancel. Hymn 208 was sung. The Bishop addressed the young men concerning the work of the ministry, and they, having given satisfactory answers to the questions of the Discipline, were admitted into full connection.

Gift of Appreciation P. B. McCullen, for himself and friends, presented W. R. Harvell, retiring presiding elder of the Minden District, a handsome traveling bag and an additional gift as tokens of appreciation, and the recipient expressed his gratitude.

Deacons Elected Question 17 was resumed with regard to local preachers. John William Harper and Alton Ausborne McKnight, having served the required time, and being recommended by the District Conference of the Baton Rouge District, were elected deacons.

No Local Elders Question 19 was resumed with regard to local preachers, and was answered, None.

W. W. Holmes in Chair Bishop Dobbs called W. W. Holmes to the chair.

Group Insurance Announcement concerning Group Insurance was made by B. C. Taylor.

Report of Bible Board The report of the Bible Board was read by S. S. Bogan and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE BIBLE BOARD

We take this occasion to plead for a more liberal and hearty support of the American Bible Society in its universal distribution of the Word of God, enabling all the people to read the words of God in their own tongues. The continuance of God's Word giveth light, and oftentimes brings the message of salvation to those who could not be otherwise reached. We recommend that the Authorized Version be used as far as possible, and we also recommend it to our people for their home and daily reading.

We further recommend that our preachers encourage a more general reading of the Bible to the end that the people may know the will of God and of the Lord Jesus. We further recommend that pastors stress that all Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and that our people appeal to the Bible in all moral issues. We also recommend that, as far as possible, the first Sunday in December be observed as Bible Day, and that, if practical, a collection be taken for the American Bible Society.

S. S. BOGAN, Chairman.

B. W. WALTMAN, Secretary.

Character Question 21 was resumed, and the names of a number of brethren were called and their character passed. See Chronological Roll and footnote.

Commission on Benevolences S. M. McReynolds read the report of the Commission on Benevolences, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON BENEVOLENCES

We have endeavored to co-operate with the General Commission in promoting the collection of apportionments and Kingdom Extension offerings. While we regret unfavorable conditions and decreased offerings, we look forward with faith and appeal to preachers and laymen alike to make every effort to meet the challenge of the present situation.

We recommend that special emphasis be placed on a representation of the general benevolent program in the district stewards' meetings, Kingdom Extension Institutes, District Conferences, and the fourth Quarterly Conferences, and we urge upon the laity the importance of taking advantage of the splendid literature offered, and especially the use of the study book.

The dates for the Kingdom Extension Institutes are as follows: Morgan City, Jan. 10, a. m.; New Orleans, Jan. 10, p. m.; Amite, Jan. 11; Baton Rouge, Jan. 12; Alexandria, Jan. 13; Crowley, Jan. 17; Leesville, Jan. 18; Minden, Jan. 19; Winnfield, Jan. 20; Monroe, Jan. 24; Ruston, Jan. 25; Shreveport, Jan. 26.

Amount collected on Kingdom Extension for the present Conference year was $8,751.63. W. W. Drake has been elected Conference Chairman of the Commission in place of H. T. Carley, who found it necessary to resign.

H. T. CARLEY, Conference Chairman.

S. M. McREYNOLDS, Secretary.

Board of Christian Education F. L. Wells read reports No. 2 and No. 3 of the Board of Christian Education, and they were adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 2, BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

We have had before us the report of the Seashore Methodist Assembly and we offer the following resolution:

That the Louisiana Annual Conference will agree to the sale of portion of the Assembly Grounds lying north of the L. and N. Railroad for a sum of not less than $25,000 to clear up all the indebtedness against the property; and we relinquish all claims to the sale price, provided that the Louisiana Annual Conference shall receive a deed, free of all debt, to one-third of the remaining property fronting the Gulf. In the event of the consummation of such sale, The Legal Conference be authorized to execute such instruments as may be necessary to make such transaction legal.

FRANK L. WELLS, President.

W. C. CHILDRESS, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 3, BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Board of Christian Education has given careful consideration to the interests committed to its charge and begs leave to make the following report:

We request that A. K. McLellan be appointed Executive Extension Secretary of the Board, and that our brethren and churches continue to give their hearty support to the Fourth Sunday Missionary Offering, Sunday School Day and Young People's Day.

We request the Conference to add M. S. Monk and A. S. Lutz to the membership of our Board.

We wish to call attention to the splendid work done during the past year largely through the volunteer staff and request the co-operation of pastors and churches in the State-wide program of Christian Education. We have elected for the coming year the following leaders: W. H. Giles, Superintendent of the Adult Division. We regret that the Superintendent of the Children's Division, Mrs. R. R. Branton, found it necessary to resign. The vacancy will be filled by the executive committee in co-operation with the Executive Secretary, and this group will also arrange to take care of the Young People's Division.

We endorse and request co-operation in the districts of our Conference the request of the Southern Methodist University for endowed scholarships for theological students, at $5000 each; and of contribution scholarships, at $200 annually.

We have heard with much interest the reports of the splendid work of the Western Methodist Assembly, Mount Sequoyah, Fayetteville, Arkansas, and give our endorsement to its intensive program of leadership training, and recommend it to all our people as a place of special advantage.

We recommend the election of C. O. Chalmers as Trustee of the Seashore Methodist Assembly in place of J. H. Carter, resigned.

We request the Bishop to make the following appointments: Dean of Candler School of Theology, F. N. Parker; assistant editor for the General Board of Christian Education, F. S. Parker; acting President of Centenary College, W. Angie Smith; professor in Centenary College, R. E. Smith; student in Duke University, David Tarver; professor in Vanderbilt University, Thomas Carter.

We call your attention to the continuation of the Young People's Assembly which in the past has been held at Mansfield, Louisiana, and urge each pastor to enlist representatives from the entire Young People's Division.

We appreciate the assistance of the Conference Board of Lay Activities in supplying instructors for Training Schools in Stewardship Courses.

FRANK L. WELLS, Chairman.

W. C. CHILDRESS, Secretary.

District Conference Records The report of the committee on District Conference Records was read by R. S. Walton and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The records of the Minden District are full, legible, and well indexed. The records of the Monroe District are neatly kept, but do not contain the official roll and the signature of the president of the Conference. The records of the Ruston District are full and neatly kept, but the official roll is placed at the last of the records instead of at the first. The records are not indexed, nor do they contain the signature of the president. The Alexandria District records are complete and well kept in every way. The records of the Lake Charles District are legible; well indexed, but contain no official roll nor the signature of the president. The New Orleans District records are a model in form and completeness. The records of the Shreveport District are also a model in arrangement and completeness. The records of the Baton Rouge District were not presented.

R. S. WALTON, Chairman.

Christian Literature The report of the Board of Christian Literature was read by A. M. Shaw and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

We had the report of our Publishing House before us. This report indicates that the business of our publishing interests has been conducted in a successful manner. In spite of difficult conditions, a decrease in sales of only 9.6 per cent is a marvelous achievement. A net profit of $37,635.75 is shown. We gratefully recognize the genius, skill and zeal of all who are connected with the production and distribution of our literature.

We also had before us the report of the New Orleans Christian Advocate Publishing Committee. In compliance with the requests of that committee and in the exercise of our own judgment, we recommend the following:

That the period beginning March 15, and ending May 15, be designated as "Special Advocate Period."

We recommend that the "Save the Advocate Campaign" be extended to February 1, 1933, in order that all charges that have not responded may have opportunity to do so. We further recommend that the appropriation for the New Orleans Christian Advocate be continued.

That D. B. Raulins be appointed Editor, in addition to his appointment to a regular charge. The Board wishes to express its appreciation of the high quality of the service of Dr. Raulins during the past year, and to solicit the support of the entire church. We greatly appreciate Dr. J. Q. Schisler's inclusion of our Conference paper among the other periodicals of Christian education. That Dr. R. E. Smith and Rev. B. C. Taylor be appointed contributing editors.

A. M. SHAW, Chairman.

J. D. FOMBY, Secretary.

Orphanage The report of the Orphanage Board was read by R. L. Clayton and adopted. He also submitted the report of the President of the Board of Directors of the Orphanage, and the report of the Superintendent of the Orphanage, and they went to record.

REPORT OF ORPHANAGE BOARD

We have before us the report of the Board of Directors, and also the report of R. W. Vaughan, Superintendent of the Orphanage. Your board is deeply gratified at the financial standing of the institution, which has been maintained during these depressed times without the necessity of borrowing a single dollar. We attribute this to the fine management of Superintendent Vaughan and his splendid staff of co-workers.

We ask that Rev. C. B. White be added to the Conference Board in place of Rev. E. J. Buck; S. H. Porter in place of W. J. Porter, and H. A. Scott in place of S. A. Alexander.

The terms of office of the following directors having expired, we recommend the confirmation of their re-election: O. E. Hodge, J. E. Rolfe, P. K. Abel, and W. T. Murray. We also recommend the re-appointment of Rev. R. W. Vaughan as Superintendent.

We further recommend that Easter Sunday and the second Sunday in next October (designated as Harvest Day) be set apart as days on which contributions be taken for the maintenance of the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage.

C. C. WIER, President.

R. L. CLAYTON, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LOUISIANA METHODIST ORPHANAGE

While the usual progress of the institution has been made this year, without material loss to its efficiency or curtailment of its scope and extent, our outlook for the new year is not so encouraging as usual at the end of the business year, because of the embarrassing curtailment of our alimony to carry us through the winter and early spring.

As will be noted from our Superintendent's report, the funds and material supplies received have fallen short of last year more than $10,000, and have been more than $6000 less than the actual cost of carrying on the institution. But for a reserve fund we were fortunate enough to have on hand, we would today be carrying a deficit of $7,000 and more. With less than $1000 on hand with which to meet expenses until our Easter Day collection, it will be seen that the situation is serious, and calls for serious consideration from the charitably-minded Methodists of Louisiana.

It has been the policy of the Superintendent and this Board to incur no debts, but how we are to maintain that status until the Easter Day offering comes in is the perplexing problem that confronts us. It is to be hoped that the wisdom of this Conference will find the way out for us, and that loyal Methodists will pave that way with good American dollars sufficient to keep the wheels of our progress turning and to avoid a most embarrassing situation to this Board. This Conference occasion marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage; a fit occasion for a vote of confidence by Louisiana Methodists in a renewal of their loyalty and spirit of generosity to the institution in a substantial way in this time of its most urgent need.

Our financial distress is not the result of mismanagement, extravagant spending, and of high-salaried attaches. Salaries were cut to the bone a year ago, and other expenditures were gauged accordingly in anticipation of the financial distress. We can go no further without crippling the efficiency of the machinery of our plant, which is unthinkable. We are the creature of Louisiana Methodism; our present distress is wholly due to delinquency of Louisiana Methodists in contributing to the support of our institution; we are looking to Louisiana Methodists to get us out of the hole they have put us into. We have no other thought than that they will do it.

Our Board of Directors make the following request of your body: That you set aside Easter Sunday, and Work Day in October of next year, as days for raising funds for the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage; that you confirm the re-election of Rev. R. W. Vaughan as Superintendent, and reappoint him to that position; and that you confirm the re-election of the following named directors: J. E. Rolfe, O. E. Hodge, P. K. Abel and W. T. Murray.

S. D. PEARCE, President.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF ORPHANAGE

From October 1, 1931, to October 1, 1932

To the Honorable S. D. Pearce, President, and Members of the Board of Directors of the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage, in regular session, Thursday, October 27, 1932.

Dear Brethren:

In submitting this my twenty-third annual report of the activities of the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage, I approach the task with mingled feelings of profound gratitude and fearful apprehension. I am grateful to our Heavenly Father for His watchful care and tender mercies, and grateful to our good people, who in the midst of the most distressing conditions, have nobly sacrificed and generously given out of their penury and privations sufficient to enable us to carry on the work in fairly good manner.

We have had no serious illness among the children, had no accidents, suffered no deaths. Our children have been kept regularly in school and made fairly good progress; they have been kept in reasonable comfort, and provided with every necessity. For these things, in these times, we are profoundly grateful to Almighty God. On the other hand, we have curtailed expenses at every possible point, have suffered a serious falling off in our income, have been compelled to deny to many children the privileges of our home, and, because of the prolonged drought, incurred the greatest shortage in our vegetables and food crops we have suffered in many years.

During the year we have had under our care 208 children. Fifteen of these have been returned to relatives able to care for them; two left of their own accord, two graduated at Junior College and are out teaching; one graduated from Senior College, with her college degree, and is also out teaching; and one was kidnapped. Twelve new children have been received. We now have 186 children in the Home. We have also had seven high school graduates. One of our grammar school graduates won the merit of being the valedictorian of her class. We now have 21 students in college, thirty-seven in high school, twenty in the Eastland Grammar School and ninety-six in the Orphanage school.

We are endeavoring to surround our children with every religious advantage possible. They attend church and Sunday school with consistent regularity, have nightly prayer services, daily studies in the Bible in the Orphanage school, and conduct the services of two organized Epworth Leagues.

Aside from the repair bill for our boiler, a statement of which has not been rendered as yet, there are no financial liabilities and no indebtedness. We carry insurance to approximately $130,000, with all premiums paid.

An analysis of the above financial statement shows the following: We have incurred no indebtedness and borrowed no money in these difficult times. Yet we have spent $3,207.09 more than our income. Our receipts for the year have dropped from $47,366.68 received last year to $33,032.01 this year, or $14,334.67 less than last year—a most alarming and disastrous symptom. However, our expenditures have been $10,487.14 less than they were last year. At the close of last year's operations we had a cash balance of $4,016.81, while our cash balance this year is only $809.50.

It may readily be seen from the above analysis that we are facing a most critical and trying time in our work. The rapid decline in donations, the serious economic situation, the widespread inability of people to give to any cause howsoever worthy, the numerous and rapidly growing cases of pitiful need and distress in every community that commands the utmost generosity of those able to help, renders it almost certain that such an institution as ours will suffer greatly, if not to the point of making it impossible to continue the work.

Our problem is a most difficult one. We have nearly 200 homeless, helpless children. We have heretofore followed the policy of providing not only a reasonably comfortable home for these children, but we have striven to give them a good schooling, even to providing them with a good college education. Most of these children had poor opportunities to begin with, and were late in getting started in their education. To complete their college work means they must stay a long time in the Orphanage. We have felt it far better to keep them until they finish their college work and send them out well equipped than to force them out in the world but half prepared, or poorly equipped for life. The results of our policy have been highly gratifying. We are thoroughly convinced that our plan has been the best. We feel, even now, we can follow no other course. But we must curtail expenses. We must manage in some way to meet our alarmingly declining income. We have striven, and are now trying, to cut expenses in every possible way. We see no chance of increasing our income. Hence, after we have done all we can, under present conditions, there is a point beyond which we cannot go in caring for so large a group. What is the solution to the problem? How are we to meet the situation? May God, in His infinite wisdom, guide us through these trying difficulties.

ROBERT W. VAUGHAN, Superintendent

Temperance and Social Service The report of the Board of Temperance and Social Service was read by D. F. Anders. A. W. Turner spoke to the report. It was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

We refuse to recede from the high ground taken by our Church on this important moral question. However, we view with some degree of alarm the letting down of interest on the part of some, and urge all of our pastors and church people to join in a more vigorous and aggressive fight against the return of the legalized liquor traffic in any form.

We condemn the effort of the wet press to show that Prohibition is in any manner responsible for the depression in our country. He does not think clearly who allows the press a mortgage on his mind. The facts show that in those countries where liquors flow freely under legal protection, conditions are much worse than in the United States. It is remarkable that during the bitter depression there has been a minimum of civil disturbance. This is an accomplishment of great magnitude, and it is fitting that we remind you that in the old saloon days the first step, where disturbance appeared, was to close the saloons.

We are glad to report that our State Prohibition law, known as the Hood Law, has not been repealed or modified, and we desire to express our thanks to those members of the Louisiana Legislature who voted against the repeal of the Hood Law.

We approve and commend every organization whose aim and efforts are to promote Temperance and make more effective our Prohibition laws, both State and National.

We regard the sale of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes as morally wrong, and refuse to sanction any moral wrong. After considering this great evil, with the lawlessness and crime that follow, we are calling on our people everywhere to rally to the unfinished task.

We highly approve and commend the work of Dr. A. W. Turner and his untiring efforts and influence in the work of legislation. His work in not only helping to secure the State Prohibition law, but also in helping to retain it, has been outstanding. We recommend that Dr. A. W. Turner be appointed Director of the Louisiana Legislative Prohibition League, and that the preachers co-operate with him by opening their churches to him. We further recommend that Dr. R. H. Harper and Hon. R. T. Douglas represent the Louisiana Annual Conference on the Board of Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League.

We also recommend that all our pastors and people co-operate with all social service organizations or agencies for relief work, so much needed at this time.

The Board will greatly appreciate it if the Presiding Elders will see that proper persons are appointed at the first Quarterly Conference as a local Board of Temperance and Social Service. Much inspiration will be gained by any who can attend the summer course at Mount Sequoyah.

D. F. ANDERS, Chairman.

J. L. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Dr. Holmes Resumes Chair The Bishop, who had returned to the Conference room, again called Dr. Holmes to the chair.

Hospital Board H. W. Rickey read the report of the Hospital Board and it was adopted as follows::

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL BOARD

The year just closing has been one of hard work, and there are seemingly smaller results to show for the faith, toil and prayer put into the task. Our hospitals have been confronted with distressing needs for increased service, free to the sick and poor, and at the same time have been embarrassed with decreased revenues. They have met this issue in heroic fashion, and most of them have been running with current deficits.

The local board has requested Dr. R. H. Harper to prepare a program or pageant to be distributed for hospital day as prescribed in the Discipline.

Eighty per cent of the funds raised by the Golden Cross method are retained by this Conference and has been directed to Tucson Tubercular Hospital as a temporary measure, looking forward to the time the Louisiana Methodists may have a hospital of their own.

We ask the pastors to lend Rev. L. W. Cain, Golden Gross Director, such aid as his plans may request, and to give to him a hearty and loyal support.

We, as your Conference Board, desire to commend the exceptional management of the office work of the General Board, on the part of General Secretary Jarrell and Associate Secretary Judge Barnett.

All money collected for hospital work or Golden Cross funds should be remitted to our Conference Treasurer, A. M. Mayo, Lake Charles, Louisiana.

R. H. HARPER, Chairman.

H. W. RICKEY, Secretary.

Calendar Special Days D. B. Raulins, editor, was asked to print a calendar of special days in the New Orleans Christian Advocate.

Payment Conference Treasurer The retiring Conference Treasurer, L. H. Baker, was authorized to pay to himself from funds received, not to exceed $360, amount due him for services rendered.

Editor Speaks D. B. Raulins, editor, addressed the Conference concerning the New Orleans Christian Advocate.

Evangelism A. M. Serex read the report of the Committee on Evangelism, and it was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

We have stood ready at all times to assist in planning and in promoting revivals, and have been permitted to assist in the promotion of several gracious revivals in different sections of the State.

We have had a report from our Young People's Lay Evangelist, Brother Van Carter, the results of whose labors fully justify the wisdom of our endorsement, and we heartily renew this endorsement of him for the same work for another year. We have had before us Brother H. P. Wall, a local preacher from the New Orleans District, who expressed his desire to assist the Church in revival meetings. We are glad to inform the Conference that this help is available, and we give him our approval. At the request of the cabinet, we recommend that Brother H. W. Cudd be appointed Conference Evangelist. We recommend, also, that Rev. A. M. Shaw be assigned to the work of Conference Evangelist. The tent which is owned by this Conference was used in three meetings held on the Gibsland, Marion, and Simsboro charges, meetings which resulted in 169 accessions to our Church. Unfortunately, the tent is in bad condition now, and we have no funds available for its repair.

This committee wishes to emphasize the importance of Evangelism in the normal life of our Church, and we urge all our pastors to give all their attention and care to this phase of their ministerial work.

Memorial Home H. S. Johns read the report of the committee on the Memorial Mercy Home, and J. G. Snelling spoke to the report. The report was adopted, and the reports of the Auditor and the Superintendent were submitted for record, as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMORIAL MERCY HOME

The Memorial Mercy Home in New Orleans affords a refuge to unfortunate girls who have been led astray. The Home has a career of good deeds shown in Christian mercy extending back now for many years. Its merciful advice is, "Go and sin no more."

We commend Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Snelling, together with their staff of workers, for their noble deeds of charity and love. We request Bishop Dobbs to appoint Rev. J. G. Snelling as superintendent.

AUDITOR'S REPORT MEMORIAL HOME

Dr. J. G. Snelling,
Memorial Mercy Home,
New Orleans, La.

Dear Sir,

In accordance with engagement, I have written the books and records of the Memorial Mercy Home for the period October 22, 1931, to October 31, 1932, and herewith submit the below exhibits prepared therefrom:

Exhibit "A"—Balance Sheet.
Exhibit "B"—Statement of Income and Expenses.
Exhibit "C"—Summarized Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements.

The financial condition of your institution on Ortober 31, 1932, is clearly set forth in the Balance Sheet presented as Exhibit "A."

The fixed assets are shown at the appraised value of five years ago, to which have been added the cost of subsequent improvements. Adequate reserves for depreciation have been provided.

Inventories of foodstuffs and surgical supplies are not shown in the figures submitted, nor do the figures include the liability covering the open accounts for unpaid merchandise and supplies purchased.

The Statement of Income and Expenses is submitted as Exhibit "B," and shows that the income for the past year has exceeded the expenses by $3,871.33. As previously stated, these figures do not take into account any unpaid expenses or purchases.

A comparison of this year's income and expenses with that of the preceding year reveals a reduction of income of $2,966.34 and a reduction of expenses of $4,895.17, thereby revealing more favorable results to the extent of $1,928.83.

Exhibit "C" shows the Cash Receipts and Disbursements for the period under review.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN F. HARTMANN,
Certified Public Accountant.

New Orleans, November 3, 1932.

J. G. SNELLING, Superintendent.

Announcement by Shaw A. M. Shaw stated that his endorsement as Conference Evangelist by the Committee on Evangelism meant that he would do evangelistic work supplementary to the work of the regular pastorate.

Sunday Afternoon Session Upon motion, it was ordered that the Conference meet Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Harper Speaks R. H. Harper, as chairman of the Hospital Board and member of the General Board, addressed the Conference concerning hospital work and urged the Golden Cross Enrollment the middle of May.

Announcements and Adjournment Announcements were made, the benediction was pronounced by H. E. Pfost, and Conference adjourned to meet at 2:30 p. m., Sunday.

FOURTH DAY

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1932

Opening Conference convened, pursuant to adjournment, at 2:30 p. m., Bishop Dobbs in the chair. Hymn 388 was sung. Prayer was led by F. L. Wells. B. H. Andrews reported that the minutes were correct. H. L. Johns announced a change in the report of the Committee on Public Worship, stating that N. E. Joyner would preach in Trinity Methodist Church Sunday evening, instead of W. W. Holmes.

Changes in Trustees Anti-Saloon League. The resignation of R. H. Harper as a trustee of the Anti-Saloon League was accepted, and in his place J. L. Williams was elected a trustee. Also, G. W. Dameron was elected a trustee of the League instead of A. R. Hoffpauir, transferred to another Conference.

Rsolutions on Prohibition D. B. Raulins read a resolution which was adopted by rising vote as follows:

RESOLUTION

Whereas, the wet forces of our country have acquired some new points of vantage; and

Whereas, the cause of temperance and prohibition will require a new approach and a new type of strategy in order to conserve the gains of Prohibition and to meet effectively the present situation; and

Whereas, Congress is shortly to convene; therefore,

Be it resolved, That this Conference request the Bishop and Presiding Elders to call a meeting of the Prohibition organizations and friends of Prohibition to meet at some central place at the earliest convenient date after January 1 to map out a program of action for our State, the arrangements to be made in keeping with plans of our General Board of Temperance and Social Service.

D. B. RAULINS
B. H. ANDREWS

Conference Depository Upon motion of W. W. Drake, the Calcasieu National Bank of Lake Charles, La., was named as the depository of the Conference.

Resolutions of Appreciation H. W. Rickey read a resolution of appreciation, which was adopted by rising vote as follows:

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

Resolved, That we convey our appreciation to the Trinity Methodist Church for taking us in out of the wet, when our Conference had nowhere to go, giving us an insight into the gracious hospitality of the good citizenship of Ruston.

We would first express our gratitude to General Chairman, Rev. H. L. Johns; the President of the Board of Stewards and Chairman Ex-officio, B. H. Rainwater, and to the chairmen of the following committees: Registration and Office, Mrs. V. H. Spinks; Arrangements, Mr. C.

E. Tookes; Finance, Mr. T. L. James; Transportation, Mr. F. H. Mills; Homes, Mrs. J. H. Mays; Dining Room, Mrs. Add Thompson; Music, Mrs. S. L. White; Flowers, Mrs. M. M. McLeod; Coffee Room, Mr. F. E. Morgan.

Also to the daily papers, The Shreveport Times, Shreveport Journal, and Ruston Daily Leader, for valuable publicity features. Likewise, to the Chamber of Commerce, and those households of other denominations, and neighboring towns who assisted in entertainment, and also supplied committee rooms for the various boards.

We are graetful for the excellent dinner provided for the Conference Saturday at the Ruston Orphanage, which dinner was furnished by the neighboring churches of the Ruston District, under the guidance of Mrs. R. W. Vaughan.

We are not unmindful of the painstaking care and skillful management of our Bishop, Hoyt M. Dobbs; Presiding Elder, R. M. Brown; our Secretary, R. H. Harper, and the statistical secretaries, under the watchful oversight of Rev. R. W. Vaughan.

Deacons and Elders Ordained Question 18: What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained deacons? and Question 20, What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained elders? were called and Bishop Dobbs submitted the following certificate of ordination, which went to record as follows:

CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION

I, Hoyt M. Dobbs, one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, hereby certify that on Sunday, November 27, 1932, at the close of the morning service in the Trinity Methodist Church of Ruston, Louisiana, I ordained to the order of Deacons: Razzie Ray Branton, Edwin Gustava Kaetzell, and Allen Walter Townsend, Traveling Preachers; and John William Harper and Alton Ausborne McKnight, Local Preachers.

On the same day and in the same church, at the closing session of the afternoon, I ordained to the order of Elders: George Henry Corry, Ira Wright Flowers, John Elton Hearn, and Byron Franklin Roberts, Traveling Preachers; and George Walton Dameron, a Local Preacher.

Given under my hand and seal, at Ruston, Louisiana, Sunday, November 27, 1932.

Statistical Secretary Questions 24-42 were called in order by Bishop Dobbs, and were answered by R. W. Vaughan, Statistical Secretary. See report of Statistical Secretary, Sections V-VII, Condensed Minutes. The Statistical Secretary also submitted the statistical tables, which went to record. See Statistics.

Thomas Carter Readmitted Question 8 was called: Who are readmitted? Thomas Carter, an elder, recommended by the New Orleans District, was readmitted.

Greetings Greetings were ordered sent to Mrs. R. H. Wynn, and W. R. Harvell was asked to bear to Mrs. Harvell, in her illness, the greetings of the Conference.

Carter to Vanderbilt The Board of Christian Education recommended that Thomas Carter be appointed professor in Vanderbilt University.

Mrs. Singleton Presented Judge Reynolds, on privilege, asked that Judge H. H. White present Mrs. H. R. Singleton, widow of Rev. H. R. Singleton, to the Conference, and she was presented.

Minutes The minutes of the afternoon session were read and, without objection, adopted, with the understanding that they would include the appointments and the record of adjournment.

Changes in Boundaries Upon request of Bishop Dobbs, W. L. Doss, Jr., read the changes in District and charge lines as follows:

CHANGES IN DISTRICT AND CHARGE LINES

Alexandria District—Take Simmsport and Jacoby from Melville Circuit and add to Marksville Circuit. Take White's Chapel from Marksville Circuit and add to Melville Circuit.

Baton Rouge District—Change name of Washington Circuit to Angie Circuit.

Lake Charles District—Take Basile from Eunice charge in Alexandria District and add to Lake Arthur charge. Take Church Point from Acadia Circuit and transfer to Eunice charge in Alexandria District. Take Iota and Maxie from Acadia Circuit and add to Lake Arthur. Take Estherwood from Acadia Circuit and add to Gueydan Circuit. This dissolves Acadia Circuit. Take Cameron and Grand Chenier from Gueydan Circuit and add to Merryville.

Minden District—Transfer Oak Grove from Campti charge to Alexandria District. Take Jonesville from the Jonesville charge and attach to Ferriday. Add Harrisonburg from the Jonesville charge to Sicily Island charge. Add Atlanta and Sanders' Chapel from Winnfield to the Campti charge, making the Campti charge to be composed of Campti, Davis Springs, Atlanta, Sanders' Chapel and St. Maurice.

Ruston District—Transfer Claiborne from the Choudrant charge to the Eros charge. This makes the Choudrant charge consist of Choudrant, Beulah, Douglas and Indian Village. Take from the Eros charge Brooklyn, Frantom Chapel and Lapine and add Claiborne from the Choudrant charge and New Prospect and Wesley Chapel from the Clay charge. This makes the Eros charge consist of Claiborne, Eros, Oak Ridge, New Prospect, and Wesley Chapel. Take from the Clay charge New Prospect and Wesley Chapel and add Vienna, a new point, which makes the Clay charge consist of Clay, Quitman, Longstraw and Vienna. Add Brooklyn from the Eros charge to the Hodge charge as an afternoon appointment. Raise Hodge to a station, with Dodson and Brooklyn as afternoon appointments. Form a new charge to be known as the Lapine Circuit, consisting of Frantom Chapel and Lapine from the Eros charge, Oak Ridge from the Hodge charge, and Hickory Springs, a new point. This makes the Lapine Circuit consist of Frantom Chapel, Lapine, Oak Ridge and Hickory Springs.

Appointments Bishop Dobbs made appropriate remarks, and then read the following appointments:

APPENDIX

CONFERENCE RULES

(Condensed)

Appportionments The amounts apportioned to each district shall be distributed among various charges in proportion to the membership and the amount paid for ministerial support the preceding year, and the Secretary of the Conference shall furnish necessary data to the presiding elders.

Church Extension Each church securing assistance from the Church Extension Board shall be required to secure the refunding of the sum donated in the event of the property being alienated from the M. E. Church, South, by entering and recording a mortgage for the sum donated.

Data for Memoirs The presiding elder, in whose district a member, wife or widow of a preacher dies, shall appoint someone to secure, in advance of Conference, data concerning the deceased. Each member of the Conference is required to furnish the editor of the Annual a succinct history of himself.

Membership District Conference The District Conference shall be composed of all parties mentioned in paragraph 87, Discipline 1930, and, in addition thereto, of the following: One lay member from each church in the charge, provided, however, that each charge shall not have less than five (5) elected delegates.

Quadrennial Orphanage Board A Conference Orphanage Board, composed of one lay member from each district and an equal number of clerical members, shall be elected at the first session following the General Conference, to serve during the ensuing quadrennium.

Reports in Duplicate All resolutions, memorials, and reports to Conference shall be submitted in duplicate.

Statistical Reports Statistical reports shall be in the hands of the Statistical Secretary by the close of the first day of Conference, and any pastor failing to comply with this rule shall be publicly called upon for his report.

Widows A directory of widows of deceased members shall be published in the Annual. The Secretary of the Board of Finance shall secure from each widow a statement of her needs, for the information of the Board.

MEMOIRS

REV. ROBERT HENRY WYNN, D.D.

Robert Henry Wynn was born at Waterproof, La., February 23, 1871. His father, Rev. John F. Wynn, who was for more than fifty years a member of the Louisiana Conference, was a man of unusual saintliness and consecration; and his mother, Mrs. Pauline Gorton Wynn, was a fit companion of her husband's labors, being characterized by a similar spirit of whole-hearted devotion. The home life was centered in a simple faith that made the presence of God a reality, and loyalty to Him the controlling ideal in all things.

Under the Christian nurture of such a home, it was natural that at a very early age Robert learned to think of himself as a child of God. So normal was the development of his religious life, that although he could never point to any particular moment when he was converted, the simple piety of his early childhood was evident, and at five years of age, he united with the church upon his own initiative and with a simple definiteness of purpose that could not be doubted.

At thirteen years of age, he entered the preparatory department of Centenary College, then located at Jackson, La. Here, during five years of his student life, the influence of a Christian college developed and strengthened the convictions and qualities that had been inspired in the home.

He graduated in 1889, not only with credit in his scholastic work, but generally beloved and honored by faculty and students, and prominent in the religious activities of the college. For the succeeding two years, he was employed to teach in the preparatory department of the college, and during this period was licensed to preach. The following session, 1891-92, he spent as a student in the theological department at Vanderbilt University, where, under the leadership of Dean Tillett, Dr. Gross Alexander and their co-workers, he was inducted into the study of theology with a zeal that made him for the remainder of his life a thoughtful student and preacher.

In December, 1892, at Lake Charles, La., he was admitted on trial into the Louisiana Conference, and stationed at Parker Chapel, since renamed Parker Memorial Church, in the city of New Orleans. Here began his active ministry of nearly forty years, characterized from the very beginning by careful pastoral fidelity and sympathetic ministry, which everywhere won for him the love and confidence of all classes. At the end of three years, he was moved to Algiers, the section of New Orleans across the Mississippi river, where he served with great acceptability for four years. During this period, on October 27, 1897, he was happily married to Miss Alma Sawtelle, of New Orleans, whose cheerful faith and untiring service in co-operation with every phase of his work greatly strengthened and enlarged his ministry. From Algiers, he was moved in 1899 to Louisiana Avenue Church, where he served three years. At the end of this period of ten years of continuous service as pastor in New Orleans, with the increasing calls and exacting demands of the city pastorate, he was considerably depleted in health, and was sent to what was thought to be a more salubrious location in the hills of North Louisiana. He began auspiciously his pastorate at Homer, but before the end of his first year, in September, 1903, he was moved to Ruston, La., to fill a vacancy due to the transfer of Rev. H. R. Singleton to St. Louis. He served out, in this college town, the full pastoral limit of nearly four years, succeeding while there in paying off a heavy debt upon the newly-erected church, and leaving behind the love of a devoted people. The following two years, he was pastor at Minden, and, in 1909-10-11, he served Monroe.

At the close of this period he was appointed presiding elder of the Lafayette District, which he served for a year and a half, being called in the summer of 1913, in a critical emergency, to assume the presidency of Centenary College. This old and honored institution had been moved some years before to Shreveport, La., and was in the midst of a struggle to establish itself in its new home. He occupied this position for six years, during which period came the World War with its derangement of social and financial conditions. The circumstances made it practically impossible to establish completely the struggling college under these conditions. But in these trying years Dr. Wynn did succeed in establishing the institution in the confidence of the community, maintaining its financial credit and its educational standards. It is safe to say that whatever larger success may have come to the college under later administrations would have been impossible but for the untiring labor and prodigious sacrifices of Dr. Wynn's administration, for which the Louisiana Conference owes to him a debt of everlasting gratitude.

On his resignation from the Centenary presidency, he served a second pastorate of two years at Ruston. For the four years, 1921-24, he served the Shreveport District.

Perhaps the crowning work of his life was his five-year pastorate in Lake Charles, 1925-29, where, in addition to the faithful and acceptable discharge of ordinary pastoral duties, he led a movement that resulted in the erection of a beautiful and complete church building at a cost of approximately $150,000, thus leaving a monument of his constructive ministry.

At the close of 1929 he was sent for a second time to Minden, where his second year had scarcely begun when painful and ominous symptoms developed which finally culminated in a brain tumor of unusual size. The tumor was successfully removed, but after several months of apparent improvement the trouble returned, and, at 1:15 p. m. on Christmas day, 1931, from the Methodist Hospital in Houston, Texas, his weary spirit passed into the Father's House above in time to join in the heavenly chorus, "Glory to God in the Highest."

In these last months of intense suffering his Christian faith was manifest in a beautiful patience that was a new revelation even to his friends. Everything that could be accomplished by the untiring devotion of his family and a multitude of friends, as well as by the finest medical skill to be found, was unavailing and his pain and suffering were exchanged for eternal rest.

His mortal remains were laid away at Minden, La., on December 26, 1931, in the presence of a great throng of his congregation and a multitude of sorrowing friends from every section of the State. The services were impressively conducted by his presiding elder, Rev. W. R. Harvell, assisted by Rev. W. W. Holmes, D.D., who gave a beautiful tribute of love and appreciation, and by Drs. George S. Sexton, A. S. Lutz, R. E. Smith, and Revs. H. L. Johns and R. W. Vaughan; while a great company of his other ministerial brethren participated silently in the service.

Perhaps the most characteristic note of Dr. Wynn's life was the transparent simplicity and purity of his character. Like Barnabus, "he was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost." Everywhere he won the complete confidence of all who knew him. A gentleman in one of his latest pastorates said with evident conviction, "Dr. Wynn came nearer being a saint than any man I ever knew." This simplicity of character expressed itself in a consciousness that permeated every phase of his life; not only in matters of personal conduct, but in the discharge of every detail of duty. He might have said with St. Paul, "Herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offense toward God and toward men." This conscientious carefulness is illustrated in the systematic way in which he did his work. Every sermon he preached was duly recorded, and the last sermon found in these records reveals the quality of his thinking—number 4,224—is entered under the title, "God's View of Foreigners," based on the story of Jonah.

Equally evident was the gentle, loving heart that was interested in everybody and that quickly won for him the hearts of children, and made him a valued friend of all sorts of people. Even in the last months of suffering his mind and heart were reaching out in prayer and personal counsel for the spiritual help of his people.

This conscientious devotion to Christ and his service was the inspiration of an all-round pastoral efficiency that is all too rare. In the pulpit he was a careful expositor, bringing messages of comfort and spiritual inspiration. As a pastor, he carried out with unusual care the daily duties of his high office, ministering to the sick and sorrowing with a sympathy that left cheer and inspiration behind it; and on some occasions spending long hours in the cell of the condemned criminal, trying to give comfort and hope.

Strangely commingled with his kindliness of heart was a quiet, unblustering courage, which was not quenched by any difficulty or danger in the path of duty. The accomplishment of the crowning visible achievement of his ministry—the building of the great church in Lake Charles—was not due to any unusual gift for brilliant campaigns of money-raising, but rather to the steadfast, unassuming readiness to undertake and carry through any duty laid upon him. His unfaltering fidelity in leading what often seemed a forlorn hope at Centenary College was an expression of the same humble courage inspired by a vital faith and undergirded by prayer.

In difficult and delicate administrative problems, which called for combined sympathy and courage in dealing with personal relations, his transparent kindliness of heart, mingled with quiet, unfaltering courage, in the path of duty, carried him successfully through difficult and complicated situations.

Equally notable was his freedom from selfishness or any taint of self-seeking; never did he seek preferment for himself. Among the things remembered by the congregation at Lake Charles in the midst of their financial struggle in building their new church, is his request for a decrease in salary to relieve the strain upon the congregation. And when his request was disregarded, he proved his sincerity by giving the amount of the requested decrease to the building fund.

His ability and character were generally recognized by the Church in the various honors conferred upon him—the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1913. Four times he was elected to the General Conference, once leading the delegation. He served for years on the General Conference Board of Education, and his leadership was sought in the different Conference boards for many years.

As an all-round pastor, efficient in every phase of pastoral duty, he was an example and inspiration to the younger men who must carry on the work which has fallen from his hands; whether as a spiritually helpful preacher, a pastor beloved in the home, a leader of childhood and youth, emphasizing an educational ministry, or as a great soul, drawing men and holding them as with hooks of steel; we shall sorely miss him and his place will be hard to fill.

Besides his devoted wife, he leaves behind two daughters, Mrs. W. N. Blanton, of Houston, Texas; Mrs. W. F. Allen, of Dallas, Texas; and one son, Professor R. S. Wynn, of Ruston, Louisiana, to whom the high heritage of his stainless character and unselfish service is an inspiration to the highest aims. His four sisters and one brother share the bereavement of his loss with the spirit of Christian resignation and unite in the sacred inheritance of his precious memory.

Perhaps no man among us was more widely beloved by his brethren in the ministry, and by the people of all stations, and of all religious faiths.

The church at Lake Charles, where he labored so successfully, has prepared a permanent memorial tablet to commemorate his faithful service. The scriptural inscription upon this tablet, taken from the triumphant lips of the great apostle, might appropriately be put into his mouth as an expression of his parting confidence, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of rejoicing, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me in that day."

W. W. DRAKE, D.D.

REV. J. F. PATTERSON

Rev. J. F. Patterson, ninety-one years of age, and the oldest member in point of service of the Louisiana Conference, passed to his reward from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Seth Orndorf, in El Paso, Texas, Monday, May 2, 1932.

Because of his failing health, Brother Patterson superannuated many years ago, and made his home with his daughter in El Paso since that time. He was received into full connection in the Louisiana Conference fifty-six years ago. During his active ministry he served many of the most difficult places in the Conference, but was recognized as one of the most faithful and consecrated ministers in this section of the country. At no time was he appointed to any large stations, but he always felt that, though his appointment was small in size, it was large in importance.

Brother Patterson was born in Natchez, Mississippi, February 15, 1841. He received his education in the same community. During the Civil War he was a private of artillery in the Confederate Army. He was a member of the Wade Hampton Chapter of the Confederate Veterans. He was married to Miss Martha Reeves Wren of Minden, Louisiana, June 15, 1868. She preceded him to her heavenly home many years ago.

Surviving Brother Patterson are two daughters, Mrs. Seth Orndorf and Mrs. Carrie P. Myers of El Paso, and two sons, Dr. G. W. Patterson of Douglas, Arizona, and Mr. H. T. Patterson of New Orleans; a sister, Mrs. Carrie Eckhardt, several nieces and nephews, who are the sons and daughters of Judge R. H. Thompson of Jackson, Mississippi.

It was my privilege for the four years I was pastor of Trinity Methodist Church in El Paso to have a most intimate association with Brother Patterson. Though he was old in years, he was young and active in spirit. He never missed Sunday school, the morning or the evening hours of worship, or the Wednesday evening prayer meeting, unless some illness of a severe nature prevented his leaving his room. He was without doubt the most consecrated character I have ever known, and cast a benediction of love and refinement upon that entire congregation by his presence. When called upon for public prayer, he talked to the Father on terms clearly showing that there was a familiarity and love existing between the Father and the child on earth. He had a unique sense of humor, and displayed it to the joy of all who knew him. At no time did I ever hear the slightest word of complaint or criticism fall from his lips, but always words of encouragement and commendation. No individual in my congregation at any time has been a greater inspiration and help to me in my ministry.

It can be truly said of Brother Patterson, "he fought a good fight, and has now won a crown of righteousness." Death for him was only a translation from this life into the City of Light. Though he has gone from our midst, he has indelibly impressed himself upon the hearts of all those who were privileged to know him, and surely we pause to express gratitude to Almighty God for the blessing his life has been to each of us.

W. ANGIE SMITH, D.D.

REV. JOHN TALBOTT SAWYER, D.D.

There passed away a few months ago one of the best beloved ministers of the Louisiana Conference. It was our brother, John T. Sawyer, who slipped away very quietly and peacefully on the evening of July 12, 1932, and thus, after several years of very poor health, his long and useful labors as a servant of God came to a close.

He was not a native of Louisiana, but was born at Ann Arbor, Michigan, February 4, 1843, and came South with his parents at a very early age. After graduating with honors from the public schools of New Orleans, he became principal of the old Magnolia School of that city, and subsequently graduated from the Law School of the University of Louisiana, being chosen valedictorian of his class. This was in 1871. Two years later the young lawyer felt the call to the ministry, gave up a promising career in the practice of law, and applied for, and was received on admission on trial in the Louisiana Conference. From that day on he dedicated his fine talents to the service of Christ and the Church, and we find that his ministry of nearly forty years covered the entire State of Louisiana. It is safe to say that thousands of men and women were blessed by the labors and messages of this consecrated man. At the Conference of 1910 he took the superannuate relation.

John T. Sawyer possessed a striking and attractive personality. His appearance and physique suggested vigor and power, and his manners were cordial and gracious. He was a very industrious minister. Indeed, his entire ministry was characterized by untiring energy and the most assidious attention to the business of the kingdom of God. His work was constructive, and probably no one among us built more churches, raised more money, or touched more lives for the better than the subject of this sketch. He leaves behind him a very fine record of good deeds and great enterprises well done. He had marked ability as a public speaker, considerable gifts as a writer, and unusual talents in facing and handling difficult financial problems.

Doctor Sawyer was a faithful preacher of the gospel. He preached the law and the prophets with great intensity of soul, but did not fail to emphasize as well the blessed doctrines of the love and goodness of God. In the pulpit his manner was winsome, and his sermons always gracefully delivered.

This appreciation of Doctor Sawyer would be very incomplete without remembering that his life and labors were most happily blessed by the help, grace, and companionship of his wife. In 1877 he was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth T. McKnight, and the union was blessed with three children, two of whom survive him—Mrs. Joseph Donaldson of New Orleans and Mr. John T. Sawyer of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The closing years of his life were passed in the home of his daughter, who gave him the most devoted care and attention.

Our good friend has gone, a kindly, big-hearted brother, a splendid workman in the kingdom of God; he slipped away very quietly and peacefully as the shades of evening fell about him,

"No moaning of the bar; musical drifting
Of time's waves, turning to the 'ternal sea,
Death's soft wind, all thy gallant canvas lifting,
And Christ, thy Pilot, to the peace to be."

H. N. HARRISON.

REV. GEORGE DOWELL PURCELL

George Dowell Purcell, son of James S. Purcell and Mrs. Fannie M. Cole Purcell, was born at Black Hawk, Miss., August 29, 1870, and ended his life's journey at Shreveport, La., September 19, 1932, at the end of sixty-two years and twenty-one days of pilgrimage. Funeral services were conducted at Noel Memorial Methodist Church in Shreveport, with interment in Plain Dealing, La. Rev. J. B. Williams, Rev. T. M. Brownlee and Rev. H. W. Ledbetter were in charge.

At the age of 17, George Purcell was converted, and he united with the M. E. Church, South. He felt called to preach, but, realizing his lack of sufficient education and of opportunity to prepare himself for the high calling, hesitated to apply for license. At length, after five years, deeply convicted of his duty, he confided in his mother, who encouraged him to make the attempt to become a minister of the gospel.

He was licensed to preach at Black Hawk, Nov. 19, 1892. For a few years he worked for his expenses and studied at Millsaps College; then, on the advice of his presiding elder, he left college about the junior year of his course, and came to Louisiana as junior preacher on the North Bossier circuit, under Rev. J. R. Roy, in 1897. Most of the summer was lost through typhoid fever, which impaired his hearing. At the close of the year he was admitted on trial into the Louisiana Conference. Bishop H. C. Morrison ordained him deacon in 1898, and Bishop Joseph Key ordained him elder in 1903.

He served Wesley, Plain Dealing, Davis Springs, Bon Ami, Pelican, Oak Grove, Ida, South Mansfield, Columbia, Jena, Dubach, Ringgold, Lecompte, Boyce, Baker, Eunice, and Walker.

Although his scholarly attainments never ranked high, he was a close student of the Bible, and could quote readily a large part of the scriptures. It was his custom to buy and study a few choice books each year. His sermons were seriously and carefully prepared. He diligently avoided stagnation in the pulpit. But there was an ever-present fight to keep the wolf from the door, and he often longed for a greater opportunity for study. His ardor for the work led him to abhor any slackness in any of the officials of his charge. One who knew him well writes: "His frank expressions sometimes made him unpopular. He never courted the esteem of men, even those over him in the Conference. He never permitted a petition for his return to a pastorate to be sent to the Confernce, although there were numerous, unsought opportunities for such occasions. He took the initiative in leaving a charge where he felt another man could secure better results. Perhaps his most outstanding quality was his devotion to duty. Idleness and slothfulness found no place in his make-up. He was persistently at work. He did not hesitate to begin a task because of its difficulties, for his faith was in God, and on Him he relied for strength to press forward. With such an attitude, it is not surprising that he never had a fruitless year in his ministry. Almost without exception his reports showed progress over previous records of his charges."

On May 24, 1899, he was married to Miss Ela Browne of Coushatta, Louisiana. Of this union there were six children, two of whom died in infancy. Four children—George, Jr., Herbert, Orie and Mary (Mrs. J. G. LaBorde)—and his widow survive.

At the session of the Conference held in Monroe in 1931, he was superannuated on account of deafness, and he then made his home in Plain Dealing. He immediately reported to the pastor there and offered his services, to be used in any way. It was a privilege and honor to be his pastor. He preached for us often—was always ready. He gave to the Louisiana Conference thirty-three years of earnest, faithful work. A good man has gone to rest.
